July 12th to 26th 2025 – Two Week Bulletin

15th Sunday in Ordinary Time – July 13, 2025

We all know we're called to love our neighbor as ourselves, yet we often face two major challenges in living out this commandment: defining who our "neighbor" really is, and genuinely loving everyone who fits that description. Today's Gospel parable of the Good Samaritan reminds us that our neighbor includes every human being—even our enemies—and calls us to show love by responding to others' needs, even when it requires personal sacrifice. Only then can we truly call ourselves disciples of Jesus, the Divine Samaritan.

"You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your being, with all your strength, and with all your mind, and your neighbor as yourself." — Luke 10:27

16th Sunday in Ordinary Time – July 20, 2025

Today we are invited to reflect on one of the most thrilling experiences in our earthly existence: the possibility of having God as our Guest. The challenge for us is to be aware of His presence and offer Him a generous and cordial hospitality. We should never forget that the Lord wishes not only to be served through our activity, but also to be "entertained" and "enjoyed" in the quiet of our hearts. He comes to us in all circumstances of our lives, but it is especially in the Eucharistic celebration that He becomes our guest when we open our hearts to listen to His Word and receive Him in Holy Communion.

"Martha, Martha, you are anxious and worried about many things. There is need of only one thing. Mary has chosen the better part and it will not be taken from her." — Luke 10:41-42
