Vocation Corner – Passion Sunday (Palm Sunday) – B

A Vocation View: Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Blessed is she who gives her life in the name of the Lord. Blessed are they who live their united life in the name of the Lord.

Prayer: That in imitation of Christ who emptied Himself for our salvation, more men and women will share in His passion for souls through a vocation to the priesthood or consecrated life, we pray to the Lord.

Action: RELIGIOUS ORDERS are receiving younger members and those who are more educated than those of previous years. In 2011, the average age of women professing perpetual vows was 39, 4 years younger than those surveyed the previous year. This was the first-year men were included in the survey and the average age of those entering Religious Orders was 42. When the participants were asked at what age they first considered a religious vocation, the average age was 19.

As part of the Diocesan Forming Intentional Disciples initiative, Mary Martin, from the Catherine Siena Institute, has been invited to give two Called & Gifted Events in our Diocese on April 6 and 7.

The first presentation will address questions we have all asked at different stages of our lives: Do I have any gifts? How has God gifted me to share His love and mercy in the world? If you are seeking the answer to these questions, you will want to join Mary with the Diocesan Called & Gifted Team at St. Joseph Parish in Prince Albert on April 6th from 10 am to 3 pm to hear Mary speak about how each of us has a special place in the choir that no one else can fill. God has gifted each of us.

Are you ready to begin the journey of discovering your gifts? The second presentation will address a desire that many of us have to lay a foundation for an outpouring of the Spirit that will help us with the challenges that our parishes are facing when starting a new ministry, bringing about reconciliation, discerning how to reach out to the marginalized or organize a fundraiser to assist those in need, planning a new catechetical ministry for children, youth or adults, or discovering the training methods for our parish leadership. In a two-hour presentation at the Light of Christ Learning Center in North Battleford and via Zoom on April 7th from 2 to 4 pm, Mary Martin will help us understand how to lay such a foundation of prayer and how our traditional Catholic prayer practices can lead to fruitfulness in our prayer life for parishes beyond what we can imagine. Are you ready to join in prayer with others to bring about the outpouring of the Spirit in your parishes?
